Quranic Memorization Ballot

Each person will be asked to recite 3 random passages from the 29th and 30th Juz. Judges should deduct points based on the following criteria:

1. Competitor makes a mistake (no matter how small or big) but corrects it right away without any interference on the judge's side: Deduct 5 points per mistake
2. Competitor makes a mistake and corrected it himself/herself after some effort. Could be prompted by the judge by tapping on the desk or on the chair (no words): Deduct 10 points
3. Competitor makes a mistake but is not able to correct himself without the judge's help. Basically, the judge corrects him: Deduct 20 points.

If the judges choose a passage that is in the middle of a surah, they must supply at least one full LINE from the Quran and not just a few words or a verse. A full line must be supplied to the competitor. Deduction of points for this section of the competition is as follows:

1. If the judge prompted the competitor with one line but the competitor could not continue except after the judge read a second line: Deduct 20 points
2. If the judge prompted the competitor with one line but the competitor did not continue even AFTER the judge prompted with a second line: Deduct 30 points.

Tie Breaker

If there is a tie for 1st, 2nd, or 3rd place, judges will ask the competitors to read another selection. If the tie continues, the competitors will be asked to explain a specific verse or Surah from Juz Amma
