

2015 Regional Debate Topics

1. Civil disobedience is justified in a democracy.
2. The narratives of North American media work against the best interest of the public.
3. An individual's freedom of expression is of greater value than political correctness.
4. The use of social media grants improved quality of social life.
5. Placing political conditions on humanitarian aid to foreign countries is unjust.

2015 National Debate Topics

1. Inaction in the face of injustice makes individuals morally culpable.
2. When they conflict, respect for cultural sensitivity ought to be valued above the commercial use of free speech.
3. The actions of corporations ought to be held to the same moral standards as the actions of individuals.
4. The use of targeted drone strikes to achieve U.S. foreign policy goals is justified.
5. The use of body-cameras on law-enforcement officials is an effective means of ensuring proper police activity